Your 2012-2013 Enrollment Confirmation Statement

This is a final summary of your 2012-2013 Employee Benefit elections. This summary reflects elections made during the open enrollment period and approvals received by the carriers if evidence of insurability was required.

As communicated prior to enrollment, if you did not actively elect new benefits during the enrollment period, your benefits have been defaulted.

Please review this summary and if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the Human Resources Department

If your confirmation statement does not accurately reflect the choices you made during open enrollment, please contact the Human Resources department immediately to report the discrepancy. A benefits manager will work with you to resolve any issues.

For more information about your benefits, please log onto the employee section of our website and click on My Benefits.
