Medical & Dental: Your Company pays a substantial portion of the cost for your medical and dental insurance.

Life & AD&D Insurance: Provides 2 times earnings to a maximum of $150,000. If death is accidental, an AD&D benefit may be paid in addition to the insurance benefit. (benefits reduced at age 65)

Short-Term Disability: After 30 days of disability, you may be eligible to receive a weekly benefit of 60% of eligible earnings up to $1,000 per week, less other income benefits.

Long-Term Disability: After 180 days of disability, you may be eligible to receive a monthly benefit of 60% of eligible earnings up to $10,000 per month, less other income benefits.

Social Security & Medicare: Both employers and employees in the U.S. are required to pay taxes to help fund Social Security and Medicare (FICA taxes).

Workers' Compensation & Unemployment: Your Company pays 100% of the cost for Unemployment and Workers' Compensation insurance as required by current laws.

Time Off: Paid Time Off is earned based on your length of service.

Section 125 plan: Allows your share of the premium for medical, dental, certain voluntary benefits and contributions to Flexible Spending Accounts to be paid with pre-tax dollars. This lowers your taxable income and therefore your federal taxes.

Employee Assistance Program (EAP): To help employees balance the demands of work, life and personal issues, Your Company provides an EAP at no cost to you.

Additional Benefits: Your Company provides you with an annual cell phone allowance and makes an annual contribution to your HSA.

Voluntary Benefits: Employee paid programs may be available through payroll deduction. Please consult the plan document for the details and eligibility requirements of each plan.

Retirement...

401(k) Plan: Your Company encourages you to save for retirement. In 2015, you may contribute up to $18,000 of your compensation (plus a catch-up contribution if age 50 or over). Your Company allows you to (1) make pre-tax deposits into a traditional account where contributions and investment earnings grow tax-deferred until withdrawn at retirement; and/or (2) make after-tax deposits into a Roth account where qualified withdrawals are received tax-free at retirement. (Please consult carrier for details regarding Roth qualified distributions.)

After six months of service, Your Company will match $0.50 for every $1.00 you contribute up to the first 6% of your contribution. You may invest your contributions in several different investment options. You are always 100% vested in your employee contributions as well as the company contributions. Please see your plan summary for more details.

How much could I have at retirement?

Although future value cannot be accurately predicted, your 401(k) account is expected to grow over time. To the right are hypothetical projections of your 401(k) account based on the figures illustrated above. For illustrative purposes, projections assume that your contributions and the contributions made by Your Company will continue and remain constant. Your investment performance will vary.
